ORDINANCE REGULATING JUNK DEALERS

The Town Board of the Town of Remington Do Ordain:

Section 1. No person or persons, association, partnership, firm or corporation shall hereafter in the town of Remington, keep, conduct or maintain any building, structure, yard or place for keeping, storing or piling, in commercial quantities, whether temporarily, irregularly or continually, or for the buying or selling at retail or wholesale or dealing in any old, used or second hand materials of any kind, including cloth, rags, clothing, paper, rubbish, bottles, rubber, iron, brass, copper or other metal, furniture, used motor vehicles, or the parts thereof, or other articles which from its worn condition renders it practically useless for the purpose for which it was made, and which is commonly classed as junk, whether with a fixed place of business or as an itinerant peddler, without first having obtained and paid for a license as hereinafter provided. One carrying on the aforesaid business shall be referred to herein as "junk dealer."

Section 2. Every applicant for a license to engage in the business of junk dealer shall file with the Building Inspector a written application upon a form prepared and provided by the Town, signed by the applicant or applicants. Said application shall state:

(a) The name and residence of the applicant, an individual, partnership or firm, or the names of the principal officers and their residence, if the applicant is an association or corporation, approved by the Town Board, the Building Inspector and property owners.

Section 5. Upon the filing of the application and the payment to the Building Inspector of the license fee hereinafter provided, the Building Inspector shall issue to the applicant a license to engage in business as provided in Section 1. No license shall be refused except for a specified reason. All licenses shall be numbered in the order in which they are issued and shall clearly state the location of the junk business, the date of issuance and expiration of the license and the name and address of the licensee. No applicant to whom a license has been refused shall make further application until a period of at least six months shall have elapsed since the last previous rejection unless he can show that the reason for such rejection no longer exists.

Section 6. Every junk dealer shall pay an annual license fee of $25.00. All licenses shall be issued as of July 1st, and shall continue in force until June 30th next succeeding the date of issuance thereof, unless revoked sooner.

Section 7. Every junk dealer's license shall designate the place of business in or from which the junk dealer receiving such license shall be authorized to carry on such business. No licensee shall remove his or its place of business from the place designated in the license until a written permit has been secured from the Town Board and the same shall have been endorsed upon the license.

The Town Board and the Building Inspector shall proceed to hear the matter and if they find the allegations of said complaint are correct, they shall revoke said junk dealer's license.

Whenever any license shall be so revoked, no refund of any unearned portion of the fee therefor shall be made and no license shall be granted to any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation whose license has been revoked within a period of one year from the date of such revocation. Notice of such revocation and the reason or reasons therefor in writing shall be served by any officer upon the person, firm, partnership, association or corporation named in the application, by mailing the same to the address given in the application and upon filing a copy of the same with the Building Inspector.
